

Sunday Plate Collection Application

The Board of Trustees of the Unitarian Society of Ridgewood has granted the Social Responsibilities Council (SRC) approval to use the Offertory Collection at Sunday services to collect money for social justice causes, as determined by SRC, once a month during the regular congregational year.

The Council will consider all requests made by members and friends of the USR on an equal basis and choose ten organizations to receive a collection each year. If you would like the Council to consider an organization to receive a plate collection please complete this form and submit it to the SRC.

What is your involvement with this organization (on the Board, volunteer, longtime supporter, etc.):

The Social Responsibilities Council considers many factors in making a decision about recipient organizations, including USRs mission, SRC committees and interests, and Sunday Service themes. We receive many more suggestions than the number of collections available, so please understand that not all organizations suggested will receive a Sunday offering. If your organization is not selected, please feel free to resubmit your request for a later period.

This form may be submitted to SRC by delivering it to the USR office, placing it in the SRC mailbox or emailing to the Chair of the SRC.
