

TRAPPED

Thanks to the recent Supreme Court ruling in Whole Women's Health v. Hellerstedt, abortion access in Texas will be restored and precedent has been set to limit other states' attempts to pass similar anti-choice legislation.

But the fight is not over.

TRAP (Targeted Regulations of Abortion Providers) laws continue to be introduced at a rapid rate, chipping away at an individual's right to choose. June's victory is one in a continuous battle defending access to safe and legal reproductive care.

Join us for a screening of the documentary TRAPPED followed by a discussion with Kelly Baden, Interim Senior Director, U.S. Policy and Advocacy at Center for Reproductive Rights.
